

2010 Indiana United Way/Funds State Leaders Conference

Hotel Information & Conference Features

United Way...Rediscovered!

Conference Benefits & Features

- Start off with Live United messaging and Advancing the Common Good.
- Get a solid introduction to the Product Development strategies with UWW instructor, Barbara Edmond, Vice President, Best Practices Exchange. Attend the Annual Meeting.
- Congratulate your colleagues (or yourself) on the annual GEM awards. Steal ideas shamelessly.
- Rub elbows with your colleagues and maximize networking time.
- Small Cities: Catch some time with UWW Small Cities Director, Rob Mackey.
- Arrive early for the banquet and enjoy the "Banquet & Bonus Package" rate including the 3rd breakout session options.

Flex Credits are approved!

What are flex credits? For United Way Worldwide members, they are training credits from a portion of your dues that may be applied for approved conferences. You may receive reimbursement for registration fees, travel, lodging, and per diem.

UWW Flex Credits Procedure: You will receive a link via email for your travel reimbursement form after the conference is over. You will have 10 business days to complete your form online.

Conference registration fees are payable to Indiana Association Of United Ways before the conference.

Scholarships: 3 ways!

For Volunteers: Scholarships are already built-in to the registration fees for all volunteers attending the conference.

For New Execs: If you are a new executive director, in your role two years or less, you may receive up to half of your registration fee reimbursed (one time) through the Indiana Nonprofit Resource Network New Execs Benefits Package. Contact your regional director for more information www.inrn.org.

For UWW Small Cities:

For United Way Worldwide members, communities raising under $1 million may apply for a scholarship for approved events. Contact Rob Mackey, Small Cities Field Leadership, for more information,

"Nothing is impossible
- If I get smarter people to help me.
- If I'm willing to share the credit.
- If I get my ego out of the way.
- If I get organized to succeed!"
